

Mauricio Fuchs Tarlovsky

Counsel

Mexico City

Biography

Mauricio Fuchs is a legal adviser for Mexican and foreign companies dealing with corporate affairs, mergers and acquisitions, restructuring, energy and infrastructure transactions, structured financing, asset financing (vessels and aircrafts), and real estate.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Mauricio worked in the Mexico City office of another global law firm, where he participated in a number of cross-border transactions involving, among other matters, ship and aircraft financing, infrastructure projects, real estate developments, project financing, and restructuring and financing of projects related to the energy sector.

Representative experience

Drafting and negotiation of area of mutual interest agreements (AMI), joint bidding agreements (JBA), and joint operating agreements (JOA).

Advised on the migration of existing allocations (asignaciones) into exploration and extraction agreements (including Ek-Balam, Misión, Santuario El Golpe, and Ebano).

Structuring, drafting, and negotiation of integrated exploration and extraction services agreements (CSIEE) for contractual areas of San Ramón y Blasillo and Olmos.

Phone

+52 55 5091 0067

Fax

+52 55 5091 0123

Email

mauricio.fuchs@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
Spanish
Hebrew

Practices

Infrastructure, Energy, Resources, and Projects

Asset Finance

Mergers and Acquisitions

Complex Contracting

Public Procurement

Transportation

Investigations, White Collar, and Fraud

Due diligence of power generation projects (cogeneration, wind, and solar).

Drafting and negotiation of oil, gas, and condensate commercialization agreements.

Advised clients on the bidding process for CNH's Round 1.4 and 2.4 and in the execution of the corresponding exploration and extraction agreements.

Advised clients on the acquisition process for renewable power generation projects.

Assisted clients for the participation in SENER's first transmission line bidding process.

Advised real estate developers on the financing structures implemented for the development of real estate projects.

Advised clients on a syndicate loan of approximately US$700m for the financing of five drilling rigs.

Advised clients on the purchase, sale, and financing of vessels.

Advised clients on the purchase, sale, and lease back of aircrafts and engines.

Participated in several internal investigations of private and public companies.

Advised in joint operating agreements for farm-out bidding procedures by the National Hydrocarbon Commission for TRION, Ayin-Batsil, Cardenas Mora, Ogarrio, and onshore clusters.

Awards and rankings

- Energy and Natural Resources (Mexico), Rising Star, Legal 500 Latin America, 2019

Latest thinking and events

- Webinar
 - Things you should know: Mexican insolvency

Latin America Regional Practice

Industries

Energy and Natural Resources

Diversified Industrials

Automotive

Financial Institutions

Areas of focus

Oil and Gas: Exploration and Production

Power: Renewable Power

Project Finance, DFI, ECA, and Sovereign Wealth Finance

Education and admissions

Education

LL.M., New York University School of Law, 2008

Postgraduate Diploma, Universidad Iberoamericana, 2005

Postgraduate Diploma, Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México, 2004

Law Degree, Universidad Iberoamericana, 2003

Bar admissions and qualifications

Mexico

proceedings and their recognition in the U.S.

- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - A Comparative Guide: Impact of COVID-19 on the Infrastructure and Energy Sector
- Press Releases
 - Hogan Lovells Celebrates the New Year with 29 Promotions to Partner and 56 Promotions to Counsel