

Kate McAuliffe

Counsel
Washington, D.C.

Biography

Kate McAuliffe has over 15 years of experience working in the House of Representatives leadership, and lobbying Capitol Hill and the Administration, on behalf of corporations, nonprofits, associations, and coalitions. She has a long record of negotiating public policy solutions for clients in health care, education, food and agriculture, oversight, investigations, the federal budget, and other areas.

Kate has successfully helped clients secure federal funding, favorable funding, and reimbursement determinations before Congress and the Administration. She counsels clients on the development and implementation of strategies to impact legislation, and complex regulatory policy. Kate appears at conferences and industry meetings, providing insight on the legislative and regulatory outlook for a public policy topics, including the federal budget process.

Prior to joining Hogan & Hartson (now Hogan Lovells), Kate was an associate with the Washington office of a leading law firm. She served as associate counsel to U.S House of Representatives Democratic Leader Richard A. Gephardt where she handled policy and legislation in a number of areas.

As associate counsel, Kate worked tirelessly with

Phone

+1 202 637 6438

Fax

+1 202 637 5910

Email

kate.mcauliffe@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Government Relations and Public Affairs

Areas of focus

Health Legislation and Policy

Federal Funding and Appropriations

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., Saint Louis University School of Law, cum laude, 1996

members of the Democratic Caucus coordinating with committee and leadership staff to advance complex policy initiatives. She has a thorough understanding of House and Senate procedure, and the current political dynamics necessary to navigate the many complex legislative and regulatory issues facing her clients.

Kate's practice also entails a substantial commitment to pro bono representation work with local and national organizations on federal funding, criminal justice, and women's issues.

Representative experience

Represents medical device and pharmaceutical companies, securing favorable reimbursement decisions before Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services.

Represents leading food manufacturer before Congress and the Administration on food safety, labeling, and trade.

Represents nonprofits, corporations, and coalitions in successfully advocating for federal funding through annual budget and appropriations processes.

Latest thinking and events

- Analysis
 - Primaries, Polls, and Results: Super Tuesday special edition
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - 2018 midterm elections: Policy implications for the 116th Congress
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Department of Defense FY18 research funding for the Congressionally Directed Medical Research Program Global Policy Advocacy Alert
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - 114th Congress Outlook Government Relations

B.A., Saint Louis University, magna cum laude, 1992

Memberships

Nonprofit Management Executive Certificate, Georgetown University, Center for Public and Nonprofit Leadership

Bar admissions and qualifications

District of Columbia

Missouri

Alert

- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - House Ways and Means Chairman Tax Reform Discussion Draft - Proposals That Impact Colleges and Universities Government Relations Alert
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - U.S. Budget Update: Bipartisan Deal May Have Averted Shutdown but More Challenges, Including Debt Ceiling and Tax Extenders, Await in the New Year Government Relations Alert