

Hogan Lovells Mobility and Transportation Newsletter | December 2020

December 2020

As we close off this year in a world that is adjusting to the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Mobility and Transportation sector group team shares its year-end highlights across the aerospace and defense, automotive, and transport and logistics sectors, including our Living Mobility initiative as well as our virtual event commitment. The past three months have been paved with interesting and top-class webinars, conferences, and interviews.

Areas of Focus:

- Impacts of the U.S. election 2020
- Alerts and articles
- Thought leadership
- Recent work highlights
- Events
- Thinking outside the box
