

Juan Arturo Dueñas Rodríguez

Senior Associate
Mexico City

Biography

Juan Arturo Dueñas Rodríguez knows how to overcome pitfalls to achieve a desirable outcome, both in and out of litigation. He has significant experience in domestic and international disputes, including litigation, arbitration, and bankruptcy.

Juan Arturo is a trained litigator in the broad field of complex commercial litigation. Whether disputes are related to oil and gas, construction, technologies, commodities, insurance, shareholder or consumer issues, he can provide insight into how to pursue complex litigation.

Having worked in our New York office and completed his LL.M. degree at King's College London, Juan Arturo seamlessly navigates between civil and common law legal systems. He has an extensive understanding of issues in Mexico and Latin America.

His arbitration practice encompasses annulment, recognition, and enforcement of domestic and international arbitration awards and foreign judgments before the courts. Juan Arturo's experience includes arbitration proceedings under the rules of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the Arbitration Center of Mexico (CAM), together with other major institutions.
