

Cartel Investigations

Antitrust authorities around the world aggressively pursue cartel investigations. Complex and global, these investigations reflect close coordination among agencies. The impact can be far-reaching. People can be sent to prison. Corporate and individual reputations can be ruined. The financial consequences can be severe.

This multijurisdictional enforcement effort has changed the face of cartel defense. You need a global, strategic approach. You need a team experienced in the legal, procedural, and cultural characteristics of each country, able to coordinate strategy and responses.

Our cartel team at Hogan Lovells is truly global, including former officials from antitrust agencies. We are uniquely placed to advise clients on major cartel investigations conducted by antitrust authorities around the world. We offer practical advice coupled with unique insights. We can guide you through the storm.

Latest thinking and events

News

Pay for delay and document retention - The ECJ's Lundbeck decision

Insights

Practical Implications of the Whistleblowing Directive: Compliance, Data Protection and Employment

Analysis

Italian Competition Authority proposes pro-competitive legislative changes to the Italian Government

Contacts

Kathryn (Katie) Hellings,
Washington, D.C.

Megan Dixon,
San Francisco

Christopher Hutton,
Dublin

Omar Guerrero Rodríguez,
Mexico City

Practices

Antitrust and Competition

Crisis Leadership Team

News

Ending the endless: Cartel infringements end when competition is no longer restricted, the ECJ rules

News

Carrots and sticks - German competition law changes for cartel investigations

News

Like the movies... – The ECJ's Paramount judgment (C-132/19 P)