Biography

Maria Wyckoff Boyce prosecutes and defends complex commercial and intellectual property cases in the energy and technology industries throughout the United States. In March 2021, she won a US$152,290,000 jury verdict in the Eastern District of Texas. She has also secured several other plaintiff and defense victories for her clients in cases involving damages amounts of eight and 10 figures.

Maria has tried fraud, trade secret misappropriation, breach of contract, products liability, personal injury, and employment cases to Texas juries in state and federal court. She has tried patent infringement cases to juries in Delaware, California, and Texas. Maria also has handled several high-profile employee benefits cases. She has been named the "Litigator of the Week" by The American Lawyer. Her trial results have also been highlighted in The National Law Journal, Law360, Texas Lawyer, and Texas Lawbook.

Maria is ranked by Chambers and is an elected member of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA). She has been named a "Woman on the Move" by Texas Executive Women, a "Premier Woman in the Law" by the Association of Women Attorneys, one of Texas' "Top 50 Women Lawyers," one of Houston's "50 Most Influential Women," and one of the "25 Most Powerful and Influential Women in Texas."
