Biography

Jose Luis Huerta, the Head of the Hogan Lovells litigation and arbitration team in the Madrid office, believes in going above and beyond ordinary limits when representing clients in court, or in arbitration. His many years of experience afford him the insight to find just the right strategy when clients are confronted with a dispute. Clients always benefit from his consistent, uncanny, and tireless ability to predict trends. His bold approach to finding the best possible settlement, willingness to accept creative fee arrangement schemes and flexibility are all key elements of his skill set.

Jose Luis represents a wide range of clients in corporate disputes, insolvency proceedings, construction and engineering disputes, as well as product liability. His is roundly applauded for his efforts. "He is technically excellent, and is also available and flexible," said Chambers 2014. "In negotiations he finds a balance and always manages to come to an agreement," commended Chamber Europe 2013. Chambers Europe 2012 noted, he is regarded as "one of the best lawyers I know; he is intelligent and practical, and his highly structured approach to work is another key strength."
