Biography

Admired by his peers for his strategic thinking, Ulrich Helm focuses on the systematic preparation and execution of complex disputes and litigation. Whether you need advice on delay in delivery, building defects, mechanical failure or other project-related disputes, with more than twenty years of experience Ulrich Helm should be your first point of contact. He has unrivalled industry know-how in areas such as offshore wind farms, oil and gas, electricity, geothermal energy, tunnelling and mechanical engineering. Ulrich is aware of the specific nature and pitfalls of the particular industries.

Contractors, sponsors, suppliers and project companies rely on his in-depth industry knowledge and experience as well as legal know-how. Therefore, Best Lawyers research recommends Ulrich as one of the best lawyers for Construction in Germany based on an independent industry. For many years, he has also been recommended by legal publications such as JUVE and Legal 500.

As a co-founder and head of the German practice Infrastructure, Energy, Resources and Projects, Ulrich has built up a competent team providing cross-practice and cross-industry advice throughout the entire life cycle of projects.
