

Insolvency Litigation

Sometimes business takes an unanticipated turn. Coronavirus has caused worldwide disruption to markets, supply chains and your workforce.

During restructuring or insolvency, recourse to the courts is often required – whether to determine parties' rights or to seek creditor protection. Our global insolvency litigation team is always ready for the unanticipated. We have managed all sides of insolvency across many jurisdictions. Whether you're a creditor, investor, debtor, or officeholder we help you minimize risk and get rapid results.

You'll not only get best-in-class advice on restructuring and insolvency, but also a disputes lawyer who understands your position and will fight your corner.

Representative experience

Our team consulted with the UK Pension Trustees in their efforts to recover £2.1bn, following the Nortel group's collapse.

Acted in defense of a clearing house against clawback claims asserted by the insolvency administrator of Lehman Brothers Bankhaus AG regarding a margin call.

We represented KPMG regarding disputes arising from their role as administrators of Peacocks, a major UK chain of clothing stores.

We represented a corporate trustee for US$1bn of notes in U.S. and Mexico cross-border insolvency proceedings, resulting in a

Key contacts

Crispin Rapinet,
London

Dennis H. Tracey, III,
New York

Manon Cordewener,
Amsterdam

Pieter Van Tol,
New York

Chris Dobby,
Hong Kong

Trending Topics

Litigation Landscape

Managing your COVID-19 risk.

Listen to our podcast series.

Related practices

Business Restructuring and Insolvency

Banking and Finance
Litigation

favorable settlement.

Commercial Litigation

Litigation Services

Latest thinking and events

Hogan Lovells Publications

Litigation Landscape: managing your COVID-19 risk

Podcast

Press Releases

Hogan Lovells obtains dismissal of action, with prejudice, seeking to claw back payments from IBM in Puerto Rico federal court proceeding

Hogan Lovells Publications

A creditor's game plan in Chapter 11: Five things to consider

Webinar

Distress and insolvency in the oil and gas industry

Insights

A soft touch - Hong Kong Court recognises foreign appointed provisional liquidators for company restructuring

Analysis

Hot on the heels – Hong Kong Court continues to favour corporate restructuring of overseas entities